Exception to Time Lived with You

A child is considered to have lived with you for all of 2010 if the child was born or died in 2010 and your home was this child's home for the entire time he or she was alive. Temporary absences for special circumstances, such as for school, vacation, medical care, military service, or detention in a juvenile facility, count as time lived at home.

Kidnapped Child

A kidnapped child is considered to have lived with you for all of 2010 if:

- In the year the kidnapping occurred, the kidnapped child is presumed by law enforcement to have been taken by someone who is not a family member, and
- The kidnapped child lived with the taxpayer for more than half of the portion of the year prior to the kidnapping.

Children of Divorced or Separated Parents

A child will be treated as being the qualifying child of his or her noncustodial parent if all of the following apply:

- The parents were divorced or legally separated or lived apart at all times during the last 6 months of 2010.
- The child received over half of his or her support for 2010 from the parents.
- The child was in custody of one or both of the parents for more than half of 2010.
- A decree of divorce or separate maintenance or written separation agreement that applies to 2010 provides that (a) the noncustodial parent can claim the child as a dependent, or (b) the custodial parent will sign a written declaration that he or she will not claim the child as a dependent for 2010.
- The custodial parent signs Form 8332 or similar statement that he or she will not claim the child as a dependent in 2010. If the divorce decree or separation agreement went into effect after 1984 and before 2009, the non custodial parent can attach certain pages instead of Form 8332.
